

Political Challenges of Muslims and their Solutions in the light of Islamic Teachings

Outline

Note:

Firstly,

We will be discussing about political challenges of Muslims, which means that the

- a. Political struggles between Islamic countries.
- b. Political struggles of Muslim countries with other countries.

a. Political struggles between Islamic countries: Emaan's Part

We will discuss that muslim countries are themselves divided and there is no unity among them. This is due to the fact that small muslim independent states work for their interests and not for muslims/islam in general.

Here, Emaan will:

1. First discuss the brief history of the political/military conflicts among muslims after Rashidun Caliphate till the fall of Ottoman Empire.
2. Than discuss current political/military conflicts among muslims, particularly, Saudi-Iran tensions, involvement of Yemen, etc. Discuss how these situations aid the formation of terror groups in these regions. Discuss how such tensions among muslim nations are making them weaker. Also discuss Iraq's political situation during Saddam Hussain's era (shia-sunni type internal problems, saddam's behaviour towards his opponents, etc).

b. Political struggles of Muslim countries with other countries: Khola's Part Relations of muslim countries with others are similarly based on mutual interest, so conflicting situations arise, such as that of China-Pakistan friendly relations and India-Pakistan enmity. This results in biased political statements from leaders, favouring Chinese in same situations where they would otherwise condemn India.

Here, Khola will,

1. First discuss the brief history of the political/military conflicts between muslims and non-muslim powers. You must discuss the fall of Ottoman Empire at the hands of Allied Powers in World War I, which resulted in the establishment of State of Israel in Middle East. Discuss how this is the cause of ongoing Palestinian-Israeli conflict.
2. Than discuss current political struggles of muslim countries which include Pakistan-India conflict, US invasion of Iraq, emerging Israeli power in middle east, US invasion of Afghanistan.
